EXPERIENCE

MVNP (www.mvnp.com)
Front End Developer, June 2007 – Present

Sole responsibility is front end development in which I take comps and hand code clean and valid code. Responsible for producing tableless XHTML and CSS based websites that works on different browsers and platforms. Also help out with email blasts, flash banners, social media, and maintaining client websites. Requires ability to multitask and work on multiple projects for multiple clients at the same time while keeping track of deadlines.

Most recent websites I've worked on are where I focused majority on the front end development of the sites while working with a backend programmer are:
First Hawaiian Bank redesign – fhb.com
First Insurance Company of Hawaii redesign – ficoh.com
Living in the moments island landing pages for Hawaii Visitors Convention Bureau
    – gohawaii.com/oahuisland   – gohawaii.com/kauaiisland
    – gohawaii.com/mauiisland   – gohawaii.com/kauaiisland

Past websites include:
Hawaii Visitors Convention Bureau – gohawaii.com
Whalers Village redesign – whalersvillage.com
Hawaii Tourism Authority – hawaiitourismauthority.org
McCafe Time Micro Site – mccafetime.com

Freelance Designer
March 2007 – December 2011
Worked on projects dealing with web, print, and media projects. Print and media projects consist of designing invitations, favors, thank you cards, and slideshows for special events. I have also managed a weekly email blast for calorielab.com working with a copywriter.

Apollo Interactive, Inc. (www.apollointeractive.com)
Jr. Web Producer, March 2006 – March 2007
Responsible for creating production schedules, presenting progress to the client at weekly conference calls, keeping team on schedule and ensure quality work from inception to completion. In charge of producing website from a Photoshop comp using html, xhtml, css, php, javascript, etc. and works closely with programming department to produce a content management system. Projects worked on as a producer are grandsierraresort.com, buycurves.com, and curveswebsites.com.

Also responsible for developing email blasts and maintaining sites of clients such as Jack in the Box, Johnny Rockets, Curves, Easton Sports, Cache Creek, Roland, Pardee Homes, Grand Sierra Resort, and many more.
